A delightful band concert was given the regimental band yesterday after-Lieut, and Mrs. John S. Upham enter-tained a party of post people last eve-ning in honor of Lieutenant-Commander H. S. Upham, U. S. N., and wife, who are visiting with Lieut, and Mrs. Bayers for a few days.

A merry party of post people enjoyed dinner at the Alia club last evening with Captain Bryan Conred, after which the entire party witnessed the performance of "Mrs. Temple's Telegrain" Those present were Lieut, and Mrs. Paul C. Potter, Mrs. Parrish, Miss Seiz and Captain W. H. Cavenaugh.

Communications from the war department have been received showing that an allorment of about $246.000 has been made for improvement at Fort Douglas. The gratification of the authorities here is very much in evidence over this good news, as it is due to the vigorous efforts of Colonel Scott and his subordinates that this appropriation is made available. Immediately on the arrival of the regiment from the Philippines a thorough examination of the post was made by the commanding officer and his staff, and on Colonel Scott's visit to Washington last January the need of substantial and permanent improvement at Fort Douglas were made quite evident to the war department. On the strength of these representations the war department immediately got in touch with the Utah delegation to Congress and by a united and well directed effort the sun above mentioned has become available for immediate use. The exact location of this hospital will be definitely settled within a few days by a board appointed for that purpose, as the site decided upon some time ago has been found not suited on account of the canyon breeze.

The remaining money will be spent in the construction of new officers' quarters, Just how many sets will be built has not been definitely decided. However, they will be double and two stories, of brick and will be located just north of those of the commanding officer's quarters. The officers quarters now available will not be forn down as they are needed, but it is the intention of the authorities to make a determined effort for an appropriation for the erection of an entire new lot of quarters a year hence. Work on the new quarters will commence as soon as plans and specification can be prepared and bids revelved. The work will then be pushed to an early completion.
